

Punt Road

Shiraz

Tasting Notes:

Juicy Shiraz, with buoyant plum and cherry fruit brightness. Spice with a hint of licorice. The palate is firm, tight and juicy, with cherry freshness and a touch of graphite.

Production Notes:

Hand-picked and fermented with indigenous yeast. Aged in puncheons with 10% new oak.

About Punt Road:

Led by winemaker Tim Shand, Punt Road takes pride in making site-driven, exciting wines that reflect the earthiness and personality of the Yarra Valley through minimalist intervention techniques. Tim joined Punt Road as winemaker in 2014, having formerly worked at neighboring Giant Steps in Yarra Valley; as well as vintages at Domaine Dujac in Burgundy and Château Margaux in Bordeaux, and stints in Chianti, Oregon and Chile. They only produce wines from their own vineyard in Coldstream.

Cellaring:

Drink now or up to 2025.

Reviews:

2016: 94 James Halliday

2015: 97 James Halliday

Yarra Valley Facts:

- Yarra Valley is Victoria's oldest wine region, dating back to 1838, and has a cool climate that garners a global recognition for Chardonnay and Pinot Noir.
- The Yarra Valley is a captivating land of contrasts: hills, valleys, vines, sheep, wine dogs, clouds, sun - it's an ever-changing vista!