

Flying Wild

Sauvignon Blanc

Tasting Notes:

Fresh flavors of lemon zest and passionfruit on the palate. This wine has a crisp and crunchy acidity and is ready to enjoy now.

Production Notes:

Early morning harvest in cool conditions to maximize freshness and aromatics. Stainless steel ferment and maturation for extra encouragement. The ferment is arrested by chilling the ferment when the balance of sugar and acid reaches its peak.

About Three Elms:

Three Elms is an acronym for Emily, Laura and Molly – the three daughters of Rod and Sandy Hallett, second generation owners. Three Elms embraces the profound bond we have as a family and symbolizes our desire to create something beautiful. Our wines aim to showcase the power and finesse of the terroir and is produced only in the best of vintages.

Cellaring:

Drink now!

Frankland River Facts:

- Frankland River is home to eight wineries.
- The region has a cool, Mediterranean climate and a long, warm growing season.
- Frankland River's remote location makes it an outstanding region to find value-for-money high quality wines.