

Ovant

“Royal”

Tasting Notes:

Fresh cinnamon and star anise characters show individuality and presence over an underlying dried spice quality. Elevated by a solid foundation of ripe elderberry, bringing charm and brightness. Round, layered and complex. Primary, exotic characters give a textured, juicy mouthfeel which is seamlessly connected to a fine savory finish.

Production Notes:

Distilled water infused with elderberries, star anise, cassia cinnamon, mace flower, and lemon peel. All Ovant distillations are zero-proof, sugar & sweetener free, gluten free, vegan, and contain no artificial flavors.

About Ovant:

Ovant is a collaboration between Margaret River native Tom Streitberg, sommelier Christopher Bothwell, and winemaker Elizabeth Reed. They produce artisanal, botanical distillations hand-made in Margaret River. Each product is distilled using the finest real botanicals to give a 3-star beverage pairing experience to those seeking low or no-alcohol alternatives.

Serving Suggestion:

Mix with ginger ale for a clean twist on a classic. Use in place of whiskey or gold rum in any recipe. Click here for more recipe ideas.

Margaret River Facts:

- Margaret River has Mediterranean climate with strong maritime influences surrounded three sides by the Indian and Southern Oceans.
- The Margaret River region forms part of one of only 34 internationally recognized biodiversity hotspots in the world.